firm in most lines of trade. Merchants are be- $5 and 714 in box. $6 ginning the year with a determination that it shall show an improvement over the one just closed, and that the improvement in business the last two months of 1896 shall be made the foundation for a better trade generally. Last year's bills are being met with commendable promptness and there is evidence on all sides that the country generally is in much better condition financially than it was at the corresponding period last year. Prices in most lines ruled about as last week, prospects of coider weather strengthening prices in some lines. Provisions are moving well and prices carry an easy tone. Poultry and eggs are coming in freely and prices are easy, but a cold snap will doubtless improve prices. Staple groceries rule firm. The fight be ween the Sugar Trust and the Arbuckle people has not yet affected prices of coffees materially.

One of These Officials Replies to Criticisms by Other Writers. To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: If one from another State were to read the Journal for the last month he would think that Indiana had the worst set of robber officers ever known in the persons of township trustees, rivaling the famous Tweed ring of New York. It seems there know the difference and how applied and how obtained between township and tuition funds. . was discussing with a man the Corn, 60c@$1.25. Peaches-Standard 2-lb, $1.50@ much-talked-about graded school in recent numbers of the Journal, and asked him if he knew the difference as to the different funds. He admitted that he did not, and There are plenty of people who are good at objecting, but are as barren as a sand hill when it comes to a remedy. There seems to be a widespread belief that when the State Association of Township Trustees meets on the 14th and 15th of this month they are going to hatch up some additional gigantic robbery. I see by a Journal of recent date that some paper of another State has already called the attention of its readers to the doings of the trustees of this State, so you see the efforts of these writers are already calling attention to the trustees of Indiana. There are Alcohol, $2.32@2.50; asafetida, 25@30c; alum, 21/2 in this State over 1,100 trustees, and I venture the assertion without fear of sucgreat mass of the trustees of the State realize their power and are doing their best to exercise it so as to bring about the greatest good to the greatest number of citizens, and will continue to do their duty, notwithstanding all of these adverse criticisms. So much in defense of the poor trustee. As to publishing these reports, I do not believe the average trustee has any objection to publishing statements showing what he has done with the township's money, but how to get at the matter was what puzzled us and others. Under instructions from the county attorney the trustees of Rush published a short recapitulation of their work for the year. With all of the fuss by the people about the extravagance of trustees, not one man in my township said a word to me about it. This shows how much interest they take in the expenditures of the trustee. The law says that any citizen of the township shall have access to the books at any time, but not one citizen has ever demanded access to my books. If this power is to be taken away from the trustees, who are you going to give it to? To the Circuit and other they, pray tell. I see by the Journal that gal. $1.18. the commissioners of Marion county gave Receipts two lawyers $5,000 out of the county funds for legal service, which is more than all the trustees in Rush county get for a year's work, any one of which did vastly more work than did the two lawyers. In fact, it takes a smarter man to be a good township trustee than it does to be a lawyer. As to the poor, I wish there could be some way devised to take care of them with less expense and with more satisfaction to the taxpayers. As far as the trustees are conknow this by my own county. The trustee of Rushville township spends more money for the poor than all of the trustees in the county put together. I know this by the report he makes to the County Commissioners and by the quarterly reports. It is not his fault that the expenses are so large; let the law tell him what to do. I do not see how we are going to help spending large sums on the poor unless we can do large offerings by local longs under which prices 4.37c; 3 Ridgewood A—Centennial A. 4.37c; 4 away with them, but the poor you have Pheenix A—California A. 4.31c; 5 Empire A— always with you. be done, and that is let the County Comtee's expenditure for the poor is too high, I see by Saturday's Journal that there was to be an effort made to give the high school another boost; also, a free library in every township in the State; also, the State Board of Agriculture wants the Roasted-Old Government Java, Legislature to appropriate $35,000 for a free State fair; also, the State University at Bloomington wants $250,000 for a new building, and I do not know how many other demands are in sight. There are the penal, charitable and reformatory institutions of the State and the salaries of our State officers; also, $100,000 to pay the incoming Legislature, besides county and township taxes. Where is all this money to come from with corn at 17 and 18 cents per bushel and everything else that a farmer has to sell at corresponding low figures? G. W. LOONEY, Jr., Trustee.

Rushville, Ind., Jan. 4. The Cost of Publication.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: You have given much of your space for the "newspaper side" of publishing trustees' reports. The trend of your communications has been that to be a trustee is to be a rogue. I believe that most of the trustees of the State accepted the office. Twine-Hemp, 12015c per ib; wool, 8010c; flax, not for purposes of stealing, but to pursue their duties in a legitimate way, and as | York Produce Exchange, was as follows: Wheat they are selected by their neighbors it is presumed that their habits and qualifications are better known and more carefully scrutinized by the electors than any other official, as their bailiwick is more compact. But now to the point. The lowest amount paid in this county for printing trustees' reports, as construed under the new law, was $72, and I take it that rates for public printing are the same all over the State; so if it costs but $70 per township, $2 less than our lowest, it would cost | cold weather. Later reports of good snows the taxpayers of the State $70,840 to print tee's term. Even in the days of Pollardism. this is a larger amount than was ever taken from the taxpayers by dishonest trustees. I am not objecting to the guard thrown around trustees to protect taxpayers, but let us have it in a form to accomceipts and expenditures, with receipts accompanying, where they are scrutinized by spection of the taxpayers. The law also requires trustees to post "outstanding inmarize: Let the Legislature pass a "pen- 34; ribs, $4.25; shorts, $4.371/2. alty act" to the section requiring a list of outstanding warrants or indebtedness to be posted at the door, or even publish that portion of the report in the papers. This would give the proper protection and would economize for the taxpayers. In this way, when you select honest trustees the taxpay- 189 bris. Wheat unsettled and higher; spot, 24% Thomas M. WHEAT TUMBLED AGAIN

GREATER PORTION OF SATURDAY'S ADVANCE LOST YESTERDAY.

Foreign News Was Bullish, but Financial Troubles in the Northwest Started a General Decline.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.-Wheat to-day lost nearly le of the 1%c it gained Saturday, chiefly on account of the general taking of profits, which were sufficiently enticing at the opening advance. The Northwest bank failures were also influential to a degree. Other markets were more or less affected, corn declining about %c, oats 4c and provisions 212 a 121/2c.

Liverpool was a decided factor in wheat at the opening. Opening quotations in that market were all the way from 1d to 11/2d higher. At the same time it was known that the amount of wheat on ocean passage had decreased very heavily, and that the world's shipments to Europe last week were small. Beerbohm's report called the decrease on passage 3,416,000 bushels, and the total amount put affoat for the week 4,960,000 bushels. With that to start, wheat, which closed Saturday at 84%c, opened with buyers at anywhere from 85c to 851/2c and 85%c the most general price. There was an abundance for sale at these prices by people whose previous purchases showed a handsome profit, considering the heaviness of the quantities some of them deal in and had on hand, the result being a gradual but almost steady decline, until the price of May was down to 84% about 11:30 o'clock. Some of the selling came from outside points, notably St. Louis, and was influenced by signal-service reports of snow in the winter wheat district, allaying greatly the fears of damage to that crop from freezing after the almost unprecedented mild weather that has prevailed. Chicago receipts were sixty-five cars, and 52,000 bushels were inspected out of store. Minneapolis and Duluth got only 301 cars, in comparison with 648 on the corresponding day of last year. The world's shipments last week, as finally reported, were 5,280,000 is nothing too bad for them to do. I often bushels, against 3,784,000 bushels the week wonder how many of these prolific writers | before and 6,621,000 the corresponding week | fresh Western, 16c. Cheese steady. last year. The visible supply showed an increase of 208,000 bushels, instead of a decrease of about that much. Closing cables tax or any other of the various township were very firm from Liverpool, at a total funds was discussing with a man the gain of 2d since it closed Thursday last; London 6d per quarter higher and Berlin 11/2 marks higher. The market here, however, was kept down by steady selling out of long wheat, a great deal of which during the last hour was caused by several bank fail-ures in the Northwest. The price of May finally got down to 83%c, and closed easy at 833% a 84c.

Corn opened a shade better, in sympathy with the better tone in wheat, but turned weak as the leading cereal declined. Trade was light-but little from outside sources. May opened a shade higher, at 25% @26c, and declined with several fluctuations to 25%c, where it stopped. Liquidation was the order of the day in The market opened steady but weakened later, in sympathy with whert, and on the decline several good-sized lines were disposed of. The visible showed an increase of $13,000 bushels, which had some effect. May opened a shade higher, at 19%@ 19%c, sold between 19%c and 19%c, closing easy at 1912c asked.

Provisions were rather tame and appeared to be as much under the influence of the wheat fluctuations as were the other grain markets. The opening in the products was at a little advance, because of the disappointment in the number of hogs received. The market lost the firmness as wheat began its decline. Packers were moderate sellers, and some long pork and ribs were likewise said to have come on the market in small lots. At the close May pork was 121/20 lower, at $7.80; May lard 21/2c lower, at $3.971/2: May ribs about 5c lower, at $3.971/2.
